MEET THE TEAM

Andrew Mears - Associate Director, Energy Division

andrew.mears@nigelwright.com

Andrew is a Senior Manager responsible for the Energy Division. He began his career with Nigel Wright in 2003, recruiting in the automotive and aerospace industries across the UK, before moving into the consumer goods team to launch the BeNeLux market. In 2008, he progressed to Senior Manager and took the additional responsibility for Iberia, splitting his time between Newcastle, Amsterdam, Brussels, Madrid and Barcelona, before moving into his current role in November 2013.

Anthony Broadhead – Managing Consultant, Energy Division

anthony.broadhead@nigelwright.com

Anthony specialises in professional up to senior level technical, commercial and corporate function appointments, across the UK and internationally. Anthony has worked exclusively within Oil and Gas industry recruitment for many years and has a strong global network.

Craig Snoswell – Consultant, Energy Division

craig.snoswell@nigelwright.com

Craig is a Consultant within the Energy Division at Nigel Wright Group, specialising in professional and senior level appointments within Subsea Construction and ROV Manufacturing sectors. With a background in Construction Management, Craig moved into technical recruitment and has successfully delivered a range of assignments across the UK and internationally, working with global multinationals, private equity backed enterprises and SMEs within Oil & Gas.

Claire Harwood – Consultant, Energy Division

claire.harwood@nigelwright.com

Claire specialises in professional level appointments within the Oil and Gas sector, across the UK and internationally. Prior to joining the recruitment industry, Claire worked in the busy project division at Wellstream for three years and also fulfilled a Personnel Officer role at Maersk Marine Services. She therefore brings a strong strategic and technical understanding of the Oil and Gas sector and its many complexities.

Gregg McMillan – Consultant, Energy Division

gregg.mcmillan@nigelwright.com

Gregg is a Consultant within the Energy Division at Nigel Wright Group. He specialises in skilled, unskilled and professional appointments in the oil and gas sector covering Subsea, Downhole and Completions. After graduating from university, Gregg moved into technical recruitment. Working for a specialist oil and gas search and selection company based in Aberdeen, Gregg quickly progressed from graduate to senior consultant within two years. His talents in the market were soon recognised by Nigel Wright, who hired Gregg in 2014 to support its oil and gas client base from its office in Aberdeen.

Stephanie Grieve – Researcher, Energy Division

stephanie.grieve@nigelwright.com

Stephanie is a Researcher within the Energy Division at Nigel Wright Group. Stephanie's expertise lies within search and selection, headhunting and market research, working across permanent and contract appointments. She currently leads all research and resourcing support for large projects and retained search assignments within the Energy division.
