Nigel Wright has been a strong supporter of the North East CIPD Awards for the last nine years and we are once again delighted to have been selected as Associate Sponsor.

Our business has strong working relationships with HR&D departments across the region, and the CIPD Awards is a great platform from which to celebrate the good work they have been undertaking.

Today, HR&D is under increased pressure to add value beyond purely administrative tasks, as companies require more support in delivering commercial results through areas such as cost savings and improving productivity.

HR has continued to make a valuable contribution in 2015. The key themes of the past twelve months have included attracting and retaining talent, change management, developing leadership skills, investing in new systems and driving efficiencies.

Being at the forefront of the organisation means HR can drive cross functional improvements to maximise efficiency, while ensuring that employee engagement, talent management and retention receive a greater strategic focus.

Winning a CIPD award can also make a significant impact on an individual's career or an organisation's prospects in the marketplace. We're looking forward to highlighting some of the region's top talent over the next few months.
