

Nigel Wright has been a strong supporter of the North East CIPD Awards for the last twelve years and we are once again delighted to have been selected as Associate Sponsor.

Our business has strong relationships with HR&D departments across the region, and the CIPD Awards is a great platform from which to celebrate the good work they have been undertaking.

As the region welcomes the Great Exhibition of the North in 2018, the CIPD ceremony provides a further opportunity to celebrate everything great about the North East.

That includes the brilliant organisations and talented people that make up our vibrant business community — and of course, the instrumental role HR&D plays in developing those careers and that talent.

This year too, it's an honour to welcome the Bradley Lowery Foundation as the official charity, an inspiring story and important cause; as well as the new Armed Forces award, another great initiative by the CIPD and one we're privileged to endorse.

The CIPD awards showcase the best of the HR&D industry in the North East. We're looking forward to highlighting some of the region's top talent over the next few months.
