

Grupo Siro & Nigel Wright Consultancy - International Talent Attraction

Grupo Siro and Nigel Wright Consultancy work in partnership to identify, attract and develop the best international talent.

This forum provides food industry professionals, as well as those from the wider consumer sector, the opportunity to discover more about Grupo Siro's international business. It is also a great way for people to introduce themselves to Grupo Siro, as well as network with other industry professionals.

Everyone values the opportunity to expand their professional network and the purpose of this forum is to facilitate quality, long standing introductions. Nigel Wright Consultancy believes in bringing like-minded people together by ensuring it has a thorough understanding of their business, their skills and their professional knowledge.

Nigel Wright Consultancy organises regular, informal networking events and dinners for those interested in learning more about international opportunities at Grupo Siro. Events typically take place on a quarterly basis and offer attendees the chance to make new introductions, share opinions and experiences and explore opportunities of mutual benefit.

As a member of this forum, you will be kept informed of Grupo Siro and Nigel Wright Consultancy activities, across the different markets the partnership operates in.